For Commissioner Of Agriculture
W. P. Hays Former Washington County Man Candidate for Republican Nomination

Mr. W. P. Hays of Bloomfield, Nelson county, was here Monday and informed us that he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture. Mr. Hays is a former Washington county citizen being a son of the late Judge David Hays. Mr. Hays is 56 years old and has been a farmer all of his life and besides being a practical farmer is also a successful business man and is President of the Citizens Bank of Bloomfield and is interested in other successful business enterprises. He is an advocate of good roads and other public improvements. Mr. Hays is well and favorably known throughout Central Kentucky as a successful exhibitor and breeder of live stock and is wide awake along all lines of successful farming.
The solid Republican delegation from the Fourth Congressional district will line up behind him when the State Convention meets in Louisville on July 11th, and his friends predict that he will capture the nomination.
Mr. Hays is well located from a geographical point of view being near the center of the State and in one of the best farming sections of the State.
So far as we are informed he is the only announced candidate from the Fourth Congressional district seeking a place on the Republican State ticket and as there is no man on the Democratic State ticket from the Fourth district the nomination of Mr. Hays by the Republicans would add greatly to their ticket.
